No other Tamil movie this year has got anything like it in terms of content and story line which is quite unique to us all watching this particular genre of movie making . The first half is fast paced and you feel like everything is happening at a very fast rate . The second half sees the build up to the climax which comes up with an even more stronger impact than first half. The first half could have been shortened by 10 minutes which will not make audiences feel exhausted. # This movie has all elements of what Tamil movie viewers wait for . Okay Kabali (Prashanth) is not your perfect hero but his performance as the ruthless gangster will leave you wanting for more . His role is quite demanding and he has lived upto it. Rajinikanth's cameo was nice which was a pleasant surprise to me since I have watched him in Achchamundu Achchamundu. Radhika Apte played Saami, his love interest who supports him throughout his life. Easily the best performance in the movie. Dinesh Ravi is awesome as Kabali brother who is into politics and he makes you laugh like crazy with the way he speaks. His mannerisms are awesome. There is a scene where he meets Manikanta (Kishore) at his home where he tries to give him good advice on how to handle Saami's case but everytime he would start speak, Manikanta would interrupt him like crazy which is hilarious. Soori was awesome as Kabali best friend which had some really funny moments with Kabali brother . Radhika Apte's looks will make you fall in love with her for sure . All the villains including the ones played by John Vijay, Anandraj and others were awesome as well. # The music by Santhosh Narayanan is awesome , especially the title theme music . It got me listening to it everyday initially. The background score is awesome too . Awesome lyrics by Vivek written by Pa. Vijay are awesome too. Best one liner 'Entre Edhuvum Edhuvum' was awesome. Cinematography is awesome by Gopi Amarnath . Manoj Paramahansa has done an awesome action choreography which is phenomenal. The first half of the movie was filled with so many things which you don't see in usual movies . It was filled with action, comedy and all other elements. Second half had managed to maintain the same pace and had managed to keep the impact up to the climax. I would say that director may have just made 2 hours long movie since there was an abrupt ending. The last 3 minutes of the first half and last 2 minutes of second half could have been blended into just one continuous scene and it would have been perfect .
