This is the third installment of the Simply Race franchise. It stars Irrfan Khan, Lara Dutta, Naseeruddin Shah, Shabana Azmi, Parvin Dabas, Raza Murad and Kunal Kapoor in the lead. The film is a remake of the 2013 Telugu film simplyS. The film was released on 27 September 2018. Plot Meet Praveen (Irrfan Khan), a constable from Mumbai Police. He was a first-time father, who once made a commitment to his wife Aarti (Lara Dutta) about only using condoms. When Aarti found out that she was pregnant, she dumped Praveen, and told him that she had an abortion. But when he found out that Aarti was actually pregnant, he makes a commitment to Aarti to raise her baby. One day, Aarti comes to Praveen with her friend Shubham (Naseeruddin Shah), a sheikh by profession. She comes with her seven-year-old daughter, Aarav (Kunal Kapoor). But Shubham is facing marriage issues, and hence, he too comes with his daughter. Shubham tells Praveen that his and Aarti's families are distant relatives, but as Praveen's and Aarti's families are close, they are a better match for their daughters. Praveen and Shubham both like Aarti. Praveen has come to know about a dangerous gang run by one Raghu and his aide, a ladykiller called Siddharth, who are after the members of the Indian Police Service (IPS). The gang has also kidnapped Aarti's daughter, Aarav, and all they want is for Aarti to give them a bribe of (10 million), or else Aarav will be kidnapped and killed. Praveen calls his friend, Inspector Saheb (Parvin Dabas), and tells him about the situation. Saheb and his team of investigators come to the police station to help Praveen. Siddharth kidnaps Aarti in a daring escape and tells her that she has to come to a certain place in 48 hours and offer a bribe to her daughter to keep her safe. Praveen, Aarti, and Shubham go to the place that Siddharth told them to
