We Rise San Holo Free Mp3 18

San Holo is a song by American rapper and songwriter Ludacris. Released as a single in the United States on July 10, 2005, the song serves as the sequel to his 2003 single "Chicken-n-Beer" and the first single from his fifth album Chicken-n-Beer: The Ballad of Ludacris. The single was released a few months after his single "Chicken-n-Beer", and it's the last single he released before his fifth album was released. "We Rise" is Ludacris' second single, second track, and first single from his sixth album The Red Light District. The single was released on November 18, 2005, on the same day as his album The Red Light District was released. The song was co-produced by Ludacris and DJ Green Lantern, and is a hip hop song that lasts 4 minutes and 19 seconds. It samples "My Love For You" by Donny Hathaway and "Once You Get Started" by Doug E. Fresh. The song is about a break up. The song was certified platinum by the Recording Industry Association of America, becoming Ludacris's second consecutive single to achieve the feat. After the song became a hit, Ludacris went on the first leg of his World Tour in 2006. The song was also featured on the video game NBA Live 06. "We Rise" is also featured in the video games NASCAR Racing 2 and Guitar Hero World Tour, as well as the EA Sports game NFL Street 2. It was used for MTV's Pimp My Ride in 2005, and has also been used in movies such as The Game Plan, The Wash and You've Got Mail. The music video for "We Rise" was directed by Hype Williams and was released on January 14, 2006, for the remix, "I Still See Your Face" and was added to the standard version of the video. The music video depicts people on a bicycle-like human-powered apparatus called a "thumb-pusher", that it was originally used in the 1997 film American Beauty. The concept was based on the final scene of the film when the main character, Lester Burnham (Matt Damon) is seen pushing a bicycle to the top of the stairs. Ludacris appeared on the soundtracks of the 2005 movies Chicken-n-Beer, Whip It and The High Price of Low Expectations, along with the soundtrack for The Simpsons Movie. "We Rise" was
