The project KEYMACRO is a modern browser for MAC OS. It combines the advanced features of modern browsers with the lightweight appeal of Surfer. It supports multi-tabbed browsing, has a convenient menubar and can import bookmarks from the Safari and Firefox browsers. In addition, it has basic developer tools, such as a JavaScript interpreter and a quick access to the CURL, jQuery, MD5 and SHA modules. It is one of the few lightweight browser applications that support JavaScript. By looking at it's resource consumption, KEYMACRO can be called a fully featured browser. Key features: * Support for JavaScript * Supports Javascript modules such as the CURL, jQuery and MD5 modules * Support for bookmarks from Safari and Firefox * Built-in Python interpreter * Imported the XPI from Safari * It can be used as a full-featured browser for web development * A clean and simple interface It's Free Browsers are the essential tool to access the Internet and get to online information. The Internet needs faster, better and more efficient browser, and over the years, the browser market has evolved into a big industry of software and hardware that we have today. There are hundreds of different browsers, and as such, you need to know what you're using, before you get into it. We're going to review the most popular browsers, and explain why you need them and what their features are, so that you can choose the right one for your needs. For most of us, choosing the best browser can seem like a daunting task, but we are going to provide you with the basic information you need to make the right decision. As we go along, we're going to be looking at the best web browsers, by popularity, features, and more. We'll also be comparing each browser's features against each other and giving you our opinion on which is the best. Browsers are built with specific purposes in mind. They come in different sizes, offer a different range of features and offer different functions. It can be difficult to choose which browser is right for you. However, most web browsers can do the same thing. They can browse the web, but they can also have access to email and do a few other things as well. Just because a browser is free, doesn't mean it's a good browser. Some of the free browsers out there can be quite limiting, and if you don't have the right
