
KeyMacro is a program designed for small business owners and freelancers. It allows you to define a keyboard shortcut to open any program or web browser in the background. Unique features of KeyMacro: The program allows you to define a keyboard shortcut to open any program or web browser in the background. It adds your chosen program or web browser to your taskbar, thus allowing you to instantly open any of your existing applications when pressing the shortcut key. The program hides itself in your system tray and never requires a user's interaction or notification. The program's toolbar can be hidden or displayed at any time. You may disable it in the options menu. KeyMacro can be easily controlled from a keyboard or mouse. The program allows you to quickly open a minimized instance of the chosen program or web browser without having to exit the current window. Two different scheduling options KeyMacro allows you to set a scheduled time for a program to open or a web browser to be opened, at any time in the day or night. The program can work as an alarm clock or a timer. It can also be used to set up an instant reply to an e-mail and send a message or a document automatically when a specified time arrives. The program can send an e-mail to a specified address at a specific time. It can also send an e-mail to a specified address in a specified format at a specified time. Another option is a reminder which can be scheduled to remind you of an action or an event at a specific time. KeyMacro allows you to easily create quick, customizable daily tasks. The program allows you to save your frequently used commands for easy access and to increase efficiency. The program allows you to import an XML file, which contains the data of your most frequently used actions and can be used to automatically set up the program. KeyMacro includes an alarm clock, a timer, a task list and many more features. The program is both free and offers a free trial for testing. Before buying, you can check out the program's free trial.
