What is happening is I am able to set the variable, the url to my php script is hitting, however I am not passing the variable to the script. I have tried using an array, and that also worked but the same issue occurred. I have a feeling its due to the way the post is happening, any ideas. Below is my code: jquery: function SetItemToInventory(index) { var inv = $("#"); inv.removeClass('label label-primary'); inv.addClass('label label-success'); inv.text(index.toString()); $.ajax({ type: "POST", url: "/Home/SetItemToInventory",
