The King of Stamford Bridge, one of the best footballers of all time, has died, leaving a legacy as a legend, an inspiration, and a positive role model.

An Englishman through and through, Sir Alex Ferguson's history with the game in Europe and in England cannot be better encapsulated than the words of Sir Alex. "This was a man who set the example for generations. So simple, so unassuming, but his huge impact and influence on the game cannot be underestimated. We were privileged to call him "The Boss." At one point, he was the richest footballer in the world, although he has long since been overtaken by
