Aloaha, LLC, a leading provider of productivity software solutions, today announced the release of Aloaha Office to the growing Aloaha Network. Aloaha Office is a secure document-management application that simplifies printing and multi-user collaboration while providing protection and anonymity. The latest version of Aloaha Office is available as a free download at With Aloaha Office, you can control the flow of paper by securely printing and faxing documents, have multiple users working on them simultaneously and print from any internet-connected computer. You can now securely scan documents to your Aloaha Office account and free up your physical space by managing all your printed documents online. Aloaha Office also enables you to share information securely using the application's document-sharing tool, "Quick Link." "I'm very excited about the new capabilities and functionalities in Aloaha Office," said Jeff Haas, Aloaha's VP of Product Management. "Aloaha Office now allows you to take control of your documents and simplify your printing, faxing and multi-user collaboration. Aloaha Office is built on the same technology that powers Aloaha Directory, our secure file-sharing application, and is designed to be an easy-to-use application that can be integrated with your existing IT infrastructure." Just like Aloaha Directory, Aloaha Office provides secure document-sharing, authorization controls, and data encryption services, all with a simple client interface. You can share existing files on your hard drive with Aloaha Office by signing-in to your Aloaha Directory account. Documents can then be accessed by others within your organization, and signed off on by an authorized user. The ability to have multiple users working on a document at one time is also possible, as well as an ability to print directly from shared documents. For added security, your online files can be encrypted using the same encryption method as your Aloaha Directory files. To Aloaha PDF Crypter is a simplistic but powerful tool that can help you encrypt PDF documents with the public key of the user permitted to read or display the file. It can be easily handled by users of all levels. The tool is packed in a clean and simple interface with few features available. Items can be imported by using either the file browser or 'drag and drop' function. Processing more than one entry at the same time is possible. So, all you have to is select the 'all' field from the drop-drown list, as well as specify the output directory, format (PDF or Aloaha) and filename, in order to initialize the encryption operation. Decrypting PDF and Aloaha items is similar. The PDF encryption app runs on a moderate amount of CPU and system memory, has a good response time and quickly finishes a task. No error dialogs have been displayed throughout our testing and Aloaha PDF Crypter did not freeze or crash. On the downside, there is no help file available and the piece of software has limited features. For example, you cannot configure program settings, such as making Aloaha PDF Crypter minimize to the system tray. – Aloaha PDF Crypter Screenshot: + Aloaha PDF Crypter Screenshot: + + [[Category:Utility]] + [[Category:PDF Editor]] Revision as of 18:43, 12 April 2012 This article is about an application, not an Internet connection. Aloaha is an Internet site. Thanks to the easily-distributed nature of Internet technology, private information can not be secure anymore. Unwanted eyes can easily pry into our personal matters. That's why it is important to encrypt our files.
