toll from a gas explosion in a Choludovo district apartment building jumped to 16 after two more bodies were pulled out from the rubble on Wednesday, an official of the mayor's office told AFP. The head of the building's management committee in the Moldavian capital Chisinau said it is still unclear whether all the apartments in the building have been accounted for. The explosion occurred on Tuesday evening in a building where 115 people were reportedly living in squalid conditions. The cause of the blast has not yet been established. A resident of the block who did not wish to be named told AFP that on Tuesday night he had heard a loud noise which he initially thought was an explosion. "But then everything stopped. Then a neighbour came to our block and said everyone was out." "There were neighbours who called the police and fire brigade and the neighbours came out to help the people trapped inside," he said. "I had a look at the building and found it was empty."
