(Photo by Carlos D. Pachon/Associated Press) Brazil's President Dilma Rousseff will be impeached on May 17. A number of people at the Ministry of Culture informed Matheus Cecílio de Aguiar, a reporter from O Globo, Brazil's largest paper, on Thursday, May 6, 2015, that Rousseff's impeachment will be announced on May 17, that is, the day she is due to leave office. Aguiar mentioned the situation to the chief of staff of the Ministry of Culture, the press secretary of the minister and the secretary of the ministry for international relations and cooperation. O Globo's editors informed the president's office that one of their reporters is going to be part of Rousseff's impeachment. In response, the press secretary of Rousseff, Carlos Marun, ordered the department of international relations and cooperation to send a message to O Globo's foreign office, so that they understand that the president's speech at the occasion of the Easter of the coming week should not be viewed as an offensive to Brazil. The great majority of the press is controlled by the United States, and a portion of the press is controlled by the Israeli lobby. That is why it is not very surprising that they have a tendency to "pretend to

Supported Games: Other Game Modes: Tournaments: Every once in a while, it's really nice to do something that I've not done before. Well, these past few weeks I've been experiencing that feeling. The reason I've not done anything of the sort is because I knew that I was going to be doing a four-player at the same time. Since the double elimination brackets are fairly easy to do, it was easy for me to plan for four players. At the same time, I was going to do a four-player Melee tournament,
