Spending his childhood in England, Dundee developed into one of Scotland's rising football stars. After making his Premier League debut as a 16 year-old in 2003, he was a key member of the Scotland side that reached the final of Euro 2008, where they lost to England in the penalty shoot-out. By this point he had represented Scotland in 83 internationals and won the Ballon D'Or as the best player in the world. In all, he scored 25 goals for his country in a glittering career, one of his greatest achievements being the first of the treble in a 5-0 win over Macedonia in November 2008. Between April and October 2009 he scored all five of the goals his country needed to win UEFA Euro 2012 as the Scots finished runners-up. He was capped 26 times for Scotland, scoring 11 goals. In signing Meireles and Allen, Arsenal makes a mockery of West Ham's £16.5m valuation of the pair, and imparts a firm sense of the financial might at the Emirates that has made the Gunners the favourites to win the league. He has been Liverpool's most consistent performer for several seasons now, and has a goal and five assists to his name in 24 appearances since signing from Porto for £7.2m in the summer of 2012. Showing considerable composure in front of goal, Suarez has also scored 11 times in 17 Premier League starts for the Reds. For Spain, Suarez made his debut against Armenia on 18 September 2010 and has gone on to play 54 times for his country, scoring 11 goals – including in Euro 2012 as his nation won the tournament. He revolutionised Liverpool's attack in the 2013-14 season, scoring 20 goals. His goals that season were so powerful that some team-mates admitted they never saw him coming. The Italian made a name for himself at Lazio, where he scored 88 goals in 137 games. He also won the Serie A Young Player of the Year award in 2010, in addition to scooping two Coppa Italia titles and the top-scorer medal in Italy's top-tier with 18 goals. He capped 89 times in a five-year spell at the Stadio Olimpico before leaving for Barcelona in 2013. Napoli have bought him back from his American move to Colorado, and he has further enhanced his reputation as one of the world's best players. He scored 17 goals last
