When searching for a desired portion of data, a user looks through a secondary memory storage media to determine whether or not the user wants to listen to a particular portion of data. Although this process is relatively straightforward, it can be relatively slow since it is time consuming to locate the location in the secondary memory storage media where the desired portion of data is stored. Moreover, when a computer system is used to search a secondary memory storage media, a time delay occurs between the user turning on the computer system and when the user begins hearing the desired portion of data. Therefore, there exists a need for a system and method for providing secondary memory storage media search speed of data files and simplified user interaction.Ibiza West Ibiza West, formerly known as Ibiza West 1 and Ibiza West 2 (also known as Ibiza International and La Maison Blanc Ibiza) is a multi-site luxury residential development located in the Ibiza area of Eivissa, Spain.
