Martin just took a step into the future At a book signing event, the author tried to nail down George R.R. Martin's next move in his "Song of Ice and Fire" saga. Spoilers abound from here. When signing books last week in Chicago, George R.R. Martin took a moment to address a question about his latest book, "The World of Ice and Fire". What would his next writing project be? "More of the same," he said. "It's sort of a companion piece." It's a quote that makes sense from one of the most imaginative fantasy novelists of our time. And while the general consensus is that Martin is putting the final pieces in place for the Game of Thrones Series of novels that began nearly a decade ago, just what that content might look like is still anyone's guess. But when we have a subject like Martin, or more specifically when we have a fan who gets to direct the game, we can get our hands on that speculation. It's believed that the next volume in the series will likely be a re-
